Saks Fifth Avenue expanding footprint in San Antonio

San Antonio Business Journal

Saks Fifth Avenue will open a new outlet store at The Rim in Northwest San Antonio this month.

The company is opening a 28,000-square-foot Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5TH store on March 19.

The Rim location will be the company's seventh OFF 5TH store in Texas. The retail store will sell designer clothing and accessories at discounted prices.

"Opening a store at The Rim will enable us to bring the Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5TH experience to the vast local and tourist population of the city of San Antonio while giving us the opportunity to be part of a remarkable retail and entertainment community," says Robert Wallstrom, president of Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5TH. "In this environment, shoppers are incredibly cost-conscious yet still aspire to exclusive labels and brands. We will continue to meet their needs by offering premium value, style and an impressive selection."

Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5TH owns 51 stores in 23 states. The outlet store brand is owned by Saks Inc. (NYSE: SKS) in New York.
